

Please do not overturn our do not call list. We savor the time as a family that we spend at dinner each evening and do not want unsolicited calls entering our home. It has been such a pleasure not to receive them.